Providing trading careers and training individuals to trade for more than a decade...

Tried, tested and refined training programmes...

Futex is the leading Proprietary Trading and Investment House providing individuals with successful trading careers. As a group, we have been training individuals to trade for more than a decade beginning on the LIFFE floor and as a result we offer unparalleled opportunities to those individuals with an absolute passion for the financial markets and a burning desire to succeed.

Futex Group's collective experience enables us to educate, coach and support those individuals who are determined to secure a new career in trading. In order to achieve this objective we train people to trade consistently profitably, irrespective of market conditions.

Trading is a serious career choice for all of our clients so we take our training very seriously. Our training programmes have been tried, tested and refined, and we are justifiably proud of them. If you would like to change your life by becoming a professional trader then we can help you.
